BLOOMFIELD, NJ - The New Jersey Bike and Walk Coalition announced that the Bloomfield Center Bike Depot, located on the ground level of the Glenwood Avenue parking deck, has surpassed the Bay Street station bike depot in Montclair in membership.

The Bay Street location was the first depot created by NJ Bike and Walk Coalition and their partners. Next week that depot will mark its third anniversary. NJ Bike Walk Coalition is opening a third depot in Elizabeth this December.

The Bloomfield bike depot opened in March of this year with Mayor Michael Venezia and Freeholder Brendan Gill joining in on the ribbon cutting ceremony.

This past summer, a mural entitled “Love and Family on the Road,” by local artist Papa Gora Tall was officially revealed to the public. The artwork was made possible by a collaboration between the Township of Bloomfield, New Jersey Bike and Walk Coalition and Halcyon Park based VELO Bloomfield.
